Copy for "changes" in advertisements MUST be sent in before 2 o'clock on the previous day.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

The Ladies' Committee of the Y. M. C. A. is requested to meet at the rooms Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Sheriff James R. Roberson is sick at his home in East Second street. The clever gentleman is threatened with pneumonia.

There will be a Faunty Crosby Song Service at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow night. Bring your Gospel Hymns.

Carrier Ed Smith of Rural Route No. 1 made his first trip yesterday in his nobby two-wheel Postoffice. Ed's outfit is new and up-to-date.

Mr. James W. Turner, who has been at the National Military Home at Dayton, O., for several months, has returned to Dalesburg, Fleming county.

There is no improvement in the condition of Mrs. Kate Bullock, who is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. R. Brooks, in East Second street.

Baron Star will be located April 1st at same place as last season, also Howard Farrow farm horse, and a fine registered Shetland Pony Stallion.

A. W. THOMPSON.

It will be pleasing information for the stockholders of the defunct Fuel Gas Company of this city to learn that there is a prospect of recovering a large and valuable tract of Western land as assets.

Dr. C. W. Chadwick of Louisville will preach at the First Baptist Church tomorrow, morning and evening, with a view to being called as Pastor. Every member of the congregation is urged to be present at both services.

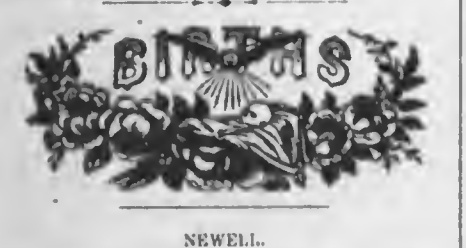

All the Church missionary societies of the city assembled in the South Methodist Church last night for a social time. The Church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and refreshments were served to all present.

A new line of Gold Crosses and Bead Neck Chains just received. They are the very latest. We have marked them at prices bound to make them popular.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mrs. Eliza Butler, who died Thursday in Chicago at the home of her daughter, of paralysis, mention of which was made in yesterday's LEDGER, will be brought here for burial. The remains will arrive tonight and the funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church, with services by Rev. Father P. M. Jones. She will be buried alongside her husband in the Washington Cemetery. She leaves four sons—John, William, Edward and James Butler.

The Committee to whom Council at its last meeting referred the matter of inspecting the old McDonald House in East Front street and report upon its condition, will report, so it is stated, at the next meeting of that body the advisability of razing the dilapidated structure. This is an old landmark of the city, and in the early '50s was a noted hotel. Old Dan Rice always made this house his stopping place when here. Of late years it has been allowed to decay and go to wreck.

NEWELL.

Judge C.D. Newell's excellent humor and yard-wide smile yesterday was not for nothing—it's a boy, and both mother and child are doing well.

MARRIED AT BROOKSVILLE

Mr. Frank A. Dieterich Springs Surprise on His Friends

The many friends of Mr. Frank A. Dieterich have been wondering at the very happy frame of mind that genial gentleman has been in the past few days, but the cause has not been generally known.

It now develops that on Sunday morning last Mr. Dieterich was united in marriage to Miss Lucy G. Conrad, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. E. Hollis, near Brooksville, the Rev. W. M. Britt of the M. E. Church officiating.

Not even the family of the groom was aware of the event until he returned home a few days ago, and announced that the marriage had taken place.

Mr. Dieterich, who is connected with the firm of C. P. Dieterich & Bro., the well known florists, is one of Maysville's exemplary young men, and THE LEDGER joins with his host of acquaintances in extending hearty congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Dieterich will be at home with the groom's mother in the Sixth Ward after April 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Campbell, formerly of this city, now of Covington, anticipate a year's stay in California, with the possibility of residing there. They will go in the early fall.

The Committee on Commencement of Board of Education, Thomas Y. Nesbitt, Chairman, will recommend that the High School graduating exercises in June be held two evenings. The first evening will be devoted to the rendition of a comedy play by the graduates and teachers. The second evening will be the Commencement proper and the program will be a salutatory, speeches, essays, conferring of diplomas and valedictory. The class will rent the Opera-house and charge a nominal admission for expenses.

DISPLAY OF FINE MILLINERY.

Mrs. M. Archdeacon will have her Spring and Summer Millinery Opening on Thursday, March 30th. She has secured the services of Mrs. Fannie Mikel of Chicago as trimmer.

'MADE HIM TIRED.'

A friend of mine said to me, "You made me weary when you commenced writing your real estate advertisements. Now, I have come to approve of your methods." I appreciate his good opinion, but prefer that he back it up by coming and buying some of the real estate I am advertising. If he will, the cat below will be a correct representation of the plethoric condition of his pockets.

JOHN DULEY.

SETTLED WITHOUT TRIAL

James L. Dinsmore Amicably Adjusts His Troubles Here

The matter at issue between James L. Dinsmore of Portsmouth, O., and the proprietor of the New St. Charles Hotel of this city has been amicably adjusted without a trial in Court.

From the facts THE LEDGER had in regard to the transaction, it was apparent and it so stated in Thursday's impression, that Mr. Dinsmore never intended a fraud. The course pursued by him was open, straightforward and honest.

He accompanied Chief Donovan to this city without a requisition, and his demeanor throughout has been that of an upright person and a gentleman.

His conduct while here created a favorable impression with the Court officers, from whom he received consideration and attention.

Mr. Dinsmore claims, and letters he has in his possession tend to substantiate his assertion, that C. W. Beggs Sons Co. of Chicago has acted badly in the matter and is responsible for all the trouble.

The only mistake Dinsmore made was in not settling the account with Mr. Coulter in the first place and thereby avoid the publicity the matter has attained.

He informed the Reporter of THE LEDGER that he intended to bring suit against the Chicago firm for heavy damages.

He left for his home in Portsmouth last night.

The Black Silks At $1 to $2 a Yard

The manufacturer who can get variety into plain black silks is a wizard, yet we have a line of them, unfigured, that are utterly different each to each. One has chiffon softness combined with a rustling body almost like taffata, another has a brilliant luster that reflects the light, a third is a corded weave with a rich finish. Yet all of these—and others as lovely—are merely plain black silks.

The New Trimmings

There is infinite variety in buttons, lace, and galloons. Especially in the latter are beautiful things. One, a vine of rose leaves, having the roses made of silk in the natural color and Maltese and Russian are the laces most used and the price range is 25c to $1½ yard for bandings and galloons and 35c to $5 yard for all-overs. In medallions are some novel conceits in Venise lace with mauve centers in round and leaf designs. $1½ yard. It is not convincing to read of trimmings—come in and see them, that is the correct way to know this varied and exquisite stock.

Dr. C. W. Altin will move next week from Flemingsburg to the farm recently purchased in Fayette county.

W. W. Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ball of this city, has been elected Vice-President of the Philomathean Society of Kentucky Wesleyan College, Winchester.

The venerable Mrs. Elizabeth Powers of Barbourville made a trip to Louisville this week to visit her son, Caleb Powers, whom she had not seen for more than a year.

County Court Day Colonel John Duley will distribute free gratis and for nothing a paper sack of the premium corn of the Tobacco Fair. The Colonel invites the farmers to come and get a sack for seed purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burns of the West End are mourning the death of a valuable watch dog. The animal was poisoned. Several house dogs have met the same fate in the past two weeks. It is evidently the work of some mean person who could employ his time in a much better and more honorable way.

It will be great gratification of many friends in this city of Dean Lee of Lexington to know that the Reverend gentleman is highly pleased with his prospects in California. His Church is a very large and influential one in the beautiful and delightful city of Los Angeles. The climate and sea breeze make it a most desirable abiding place.

Dr. George M. Armstrong, aged 58, formerly of Augusta, committed suicide by taking morphine in his office in St. Louis a few days ago.

The Eclipse Woolen Mills, one of the oldest in Louisville, has made an assignment to the Louisville Trust Company. The liabilities are about $275,000, and the assets about $200,000.

At a charming whist party given by Mrs. Isadore Schwabe at her home in Charleston, W. Va., a few days ago, Mrs. Herliert Frankenberg, nee Miss Henrietta Davis, made the highest score and was awarded a handsome Christy picture.

A late rumor in railway circles is that the Pennsylvania and the New York Central interests had agreed on a plan whereby the Chesapeake and Ohio and the Big Four will enter into traffic relations so close as to amount to very nearly a combination of the two roads.

SCORES IN DEBATE

The Rev. J. B. Briney Champions the Modern Newspapers

The Rev. J. B. Briney, now Editor of The Christian Companion and Pastor of the Broadway Christian Church of Louisville, but many years ago Pastor of the Mayville Christian Church, championed newspapers against an attack made on them by the Rev. J. A. Lord of Cincinnati at the National Congress of the Disciples of Christ, at Columbia, Mo.

A dispatch from that city reports the Rev. Mr. Lord as saying he was afraid of newspapers, and the Rev. Mr. Briney replied that if the Apostle Paul was on earth today he would be a newspaper man.

"He would go either to St. Louis, Chicago or Cincinnati and start a newspaper," continued Elder Briney, "or he might come to Louisville and apply for an editorial position on The Christian Companion. I think newspapers occupy an important place in our scheme of things, and don't see any reason why anyone should be afraid of them."

The Rev. Mr. Briney is sixty-five years old and a striking example in refutation of the Oser idea that men at three score should be chloroformed.

A Chicago Alderman Owe His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 South Peoria street, Chicago. "Two years ago, during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat, and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

A UNIQUE RECORD.
Not Another Like It In Our Broad Republic.
To give positive home testimony in every locality is of itself unanswerable proof of merit; but when we add to this the continued endorsement from people who testified years ago no evidence can be stronger. A Maysville citizen gratefully acknowledges the good received from Doan's Kidney Pills, and when time has tested the cure we find the same hearty endorsement, with added enthusiasm and continued praise. Cases of this kind are plentiful in the work of Doan's Kidney Pills, and such a record is unique in the annals of medicine.
A. W. McClanahan of A. W. & B. P. McClanahan, grocers, at 121 Second street Maysville, Ky., says:
"I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills more heartily today than I did five years ago when I told the Maysville people that this medicine had cured me of severe kidney trouble and backache that had bothered me more or less for twenty years and seemed to be growing worse and worse all the time. I repeat that I can more confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today than I did in that testimonial because my cure has been permanent and I have had no kidney trouble for nearly five years. As proof that I am a firm believer in Doan's Kidney Pills I will be only too pleased to reiterate the above to anyone who may inquire. I got the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug-store."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
